

High Heels

xens

One night can be hard,
sometimes but when all there's left from you are scars.

You'll see a hundred neon lights,
with your name on it.

Don't give up,
they'll be gone.

One night can be hard,
sometimes but when the sun goes up a million times.

You'll feel like you're walking in high heels, the red carpet.

In the lime line.

One day you'll steal,
their show.

They see me as a broken glass hurtful,
but they can't understand what's inside.
So I will show them that before I'm gone,
my name.

Neon lights they shine (You keep walking in high heels).
